Instructions

Thank you so much for expressing interest in a leadership position at Celebration Church. Before we introduce anyone into a leadership position, we require not only six months of regular attendance at Celebration, but also that time be taken to reflect on what it means to be a Christian Leader in our church family. At Celebration, we not only believe in people serving according to their spiritual gifts (how God has wired them specifically) and in their passion area, but we also believe in people understanding the tremendous responsibilities that come with leadership. According to Christian leadership expert LeRoy Eims, "Before people take on a leadership responsibility, they should weight the matter carefully. Leaders will be held in more severe and stricter judgment than their followers. That one thought should give us pause." As you decide whether or not God is calling you into a leadership position, we want to give you a glimpse into some of the basic topics scripture talks about when it comes to leading in the church. After all, leaders in this church are not only representing Celebration, but Jesus Christ. We ultimately look to the Holy Spirit for guidance and His word for direction. Leading in a church is about following the teachings and example of Jesus Christ. More importantly, we truly believe that if God is calling you into leadership, he will prepare you and equip you to accomplish His goals. "For it is God who works in you to will and to act according to His good purpose" (Phil 2:13). God has used ordinary people throughout history to accomplish extraordinary things. If God is calling you into the leadership at Celebration Church then have faith that He will prepare you and equip you to do extraordinary things for the Kingdom.

Salvation

Much misunderstanding exists about what it means to "be a Christian". If you are unclear as to whether or not you are a Christian, we'd like to talk with you about any confusion that you have. Please don't be embarrassed if you are not sure. Please put this questionnaire aside and set up a time to talk with a staff member or ministry leader to discuss your questions. This matter is of vital importance to every leader so please don't take any more steps until you have your meeting. How does someone become a Christian?

Describe how and when this happened to you

Baptism

While we respect the religious heritage of those who have been baptized as infants, we believe Scripture teaches that baptism should come after a person has personally asked Jesus to be the leader of their life. It is necessary, therefore, that a person be baptized by his or her own choice before becoming a leader at Celebration. If you have not been baptized since you became a Christ-follower, we ask that you do so at your next opportunity. Have you ever been baptized as a follower of Christ?

YesNo

Do you regard the Bible as God's final authority in all areas of the Christian life and do you desire to be wholly obedient to it?

YesNo Yes, with exceptions

When, Where & How

Doctrine

If you have major concerns with living under the authority of the Bible, you will probably not want to go any further with this process since Celebration regards scripture as the final authority and arbitrator of truth. It would be out of order for anyone to lead at Celebration without submitting to Scripture. It may still be very valuable to meet with a staff member, though, to discuss your reservations.

Do you regard the Bible as God's final authority in all areas of the Christian life and do you desire to be wholly obedient to it?

YesNo Yes, with exceptions

Have you completely read the Celebration Church doctrine statement and do you wholeheartedly affirm it?

YesNo

If not, what are your specific reservations?

Will you refrain from promoting doctrines not found in our Statement of Faith in ways that cause confusion or dissention?

YesNo

Vision

We have a tremendous responsibility to minister to people from all different spiritual, economic, social, educational, and church backgrounds. With this in mind, understanding the vision and mission of this church is of vital importance. We encourage all potential leaders to attend all groups, classes and events where the vision of Celebration is taught and lived out.

Authenticity & Honesty

We fully recognize that we are all sinners (I John 1:8, Romans 3:23) redeemed by God's incredible grace and mercy, and there is no hierarchy of sin (James 2:10). Our purpose in asking these questions is not to judge or condemn (John 8:7, 10, 11), but to protect the integrity of this ministry and protect you from potential shame or pain. This team is full of people who struggle with their own fallen condition and need for redemption. We simply ask that you honestly confess these areas to God (I John 1:9) and an accountability partner at CC (James 5:16, Galatians 6:1-2), and obtain the help you need to overcome obstacles in your life. As scripture says, He is faithful to cleanse us and will show Himself strong when we admit we are weak.

Do you have any past or present struggles that seem to hinder your relationship with God and might affect your involvement in this ministry? (i.e. substance abuse problems, addictive behavior, civil or criminal violations, improper relationships, etc)

Would you prefer to discuss this question confidentially with one of our ministry leaders?

YesNo

If you are not legally married, are you living with someone of the opposite sex? (not including family)

YesNo

As far as it is up to you, are you committed to living out Matthew 18 (going personally and privately to the individual and discussing your conflict in a God-honoring manner; If that doesn't work then to pull in one other Christ follower to assist in the conflict resolution process) and pursuing biblical conflict resolution to rectify relational conflicts?

YesNo

Do you believe the way you use your material wealth is God-honoring in all aspects?

YesNo

Explain

F.A.I.T.H.

The FAITH acronym has been used by us to underline several key areas that are crucial to a leader's success here at Celebration.

Faithfulness

Matthew 25:23 "His master replied, 'Well done, good and faithful servant! You have been faithful with a few things. I will put you in charge of many things. Come and share your master's happiness!'"

In what ministry areas have you served at Celebration, in what capacity, and for how long?

What results have you seen from your servanthood?

Who could we contact to discuss your service at Celebration Church (i.e. ministry references)?

Are you faithfully involved in a Life Group at Celebration Church?

Who is your Life Group leader and what has been your specific involvement?

Availability

Matthew 12:15 "Aware of this, Jesus withdrew from that place. Many followed him and he healed all their sick...." (Being accessible to those you serve and lead inspires confidence, security and it encourages others to do likewise.)

Are you easily accessible? In what ways?

How much time do you have per week to spend on ministry planning and involvement?

How does your schedule lend itself to spending time each week with your ministry and those folks involved in your ministry?

Inspiring daily time with God

1 Thess. 1:3 "We continually remember before our God and Father your work produced by faith, your labor prompted by love, and your endurance inspired by hope in our Lord Jesus Christ."

Describe your relationship with Christ?

What are you doing on a daily/weekly/monthly basis to connect with God?

Are you open to the leading and inspiration of the Holy Spirit? Please explain.

Have you prayed specifically for this leadership position and what are the results of those prayers?

Teachability

Luke 6:40 "A student is not above his teacher, but everyone who is fully trained will be like his teacher."

How do you respond to advice, comments or criticism? Give an example of a time you had to respond to criticism.

Do you utilize other resources (people, books, articles, etc...) or try to accomplish goals on your own?

Are you teachable? Please explain.

Who can we talk to at Celebration to discuss your teachability?

Humility

1 Peter 5:5 "All of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, because God opposes the proud but gives grace to the humble."

How do you wrestle with issues of pride and ego?

Would those you work or live with consider you a humble person?

Do you have an accountability partner(s)? How does that person sharpen your edges (i.e. "Iron sharpens iron.")?

Final Instructions

At Celebration Church, we have found that it is a very powerful exercise when you stop and consider how you lead, why you lead, and what has led you to this specific place in life. Please know that our entire goal of the process is to set you and your ministry up for success. After you complete this questionnaire, contact the ministry leader or staff member responsible for the area in which you are interested in serving. The leader or staff member will review the document and discuss the next steps to be taken with you. If this is a new ministry idea, please complete the questions at the end of this form and then contact Debbie Pell at debbiep@celebrationchurch.org. If you don't meet all of the leadership requirements, don't worry. Your leader will walk with you and recommend next steps, redirection or mentoring. Anyone struggling with faithfulness, availability, inspired daily time with God, teachability, or humility will be encouraged to serve in another capacity at Celebration until the issues are resolved.
